THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) An assistance of Rs. 4549.31 crore had been approved for undertaking relief measures to States affected by floods and drought during 2002-03. Of this Rs. 2121.75 crore were released from the National Calamity Contingency Fund (NCCF) and the balance amount was available under the Calamity Relief Fund (CRF) to which the Central Government contributes 75%.

(b) and (c) In case of Maharashtra, a request was received for assistance for providing relief measures after the floods in June, 2002. The request was examined. As the State Government had adequate funds under Calamity Relief Fund, no assistance was required to be released from NCCF. The expenditure on development work or for restoration of infrastructure is required to be met out of the State Plan funds as per the CRF and NCCF Schemes which are based on the recommendations of the Eleventh Finance Commission.
